Popular Ska Band Returns For Free Show at Kingstowne

The Pietasters shake up Kingstowne Towne Center with their frenzied Ska-Rock-and-Soul show on Friday, August 18, 2006, at 7:30 p.m. The eight piece ska band features lots of bass, drums, saxophone and horns. Ska music's upbeat sound became popular in the 1960's and influenced many punk rock bands over the years, peaking in the 1990's. The Pietasters are a local favorite, with roots in D.C.'s punk rock subculture.

Lee District Nights, a summer concert series, can be enjoyed at Kingstowne Towne Center on Fridays and at Lee District Park Amphitheater on Wednesday evenings. The performances feature a wide variety of musical acts from jazz to big band, classic to bluegrass, swing, folk and vintage rock and roll.

Kingstowne Towne Center is located at 5955 Kingstowne Boulevard, Alexandria.

Concerts are held outdoors. Bring a picnic dinner and blankets, and sit back and enjoy the show. If there is a threat of bad weather call (703) 324-SHOW after 6 p.m. for cancellation updates.

Lee District Nights at the Kingstowne Towne Center is made possible through the efforts of the Lee District Supervisor and Friends of the Lee District Nights in partnership with the Fairfax County Park Authority and the generous support of the local business community.

For more information about any of the summer series contact the Public Information Office at (703) 324-8662 or visit us online at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances/>.
